STADIUM JUMPING, INC. DEBUTS THE NORTH COAST JUMPER CLASSIC
New Jumper Show Heads to Cleveland Metroparks Polo Field, September 10 to 14, 2008

CHAGRIN FALLS, OHIO – April 22, 2008 – Stadium Jumping, Inc., the nation’s premiere horse show producer, is pleased to announce the creation of a new show jumping event in Ohio, the North Coast Jumper Classic, September 10 to 14, 2008, which will offer a $50,000 Grand Prix on the final day. The Cleveland Metroparks Polo Field in Moreland Hills will host the new show which will be geared toward all levels of show jumpers, the week prior to the internationally sanctioned (FEI) Wachovia Securities American Gold Cup, September 17 to 21.

“Cleveland offers a great home for show jumping and we are happy to have received approval from the USEF (United States Equestrian Federation) to add a jumper show in this market, which will offer classes for training jumpers through grand prix level in two rings of competition. We expect that some equestrians will add the North Coast Jumper Classic to their travels to the American Gold Cup, allowing them to stay at the grounds an extra week. There will also be exhibitors who can’t compete at the American Gold Cup, but will want to show in the North Coast Jumper Classic events, which will offer lower height jumper divisions for less experienced horses and riders,” explained Michael Morrissey, Stadium Jumping CEO.

The divisions included on the North Coast Jumper Classic schedule will include Children’s, Pony, Adult, Training, Schooling, Junior, Amateur-Owner, Modified, and Open Jumpers.

“North America’s first ever show jumping grand prix was held at the Cleveland Metroparks Polo Field in 1965, and this historic site and popular travel destination will appeal to exhibitors, as well as spectators. The all-weather footing, including the Riso Ring, will allow us to compete rain or shine,” Morrissey added.

Details of the North Coast Jumper Classic and the schedule will be finalized soon. The show is expected to be included on the Ohio PHA, Western Pennsylvania PHA, Kentucky Hunter Jumper Association, and Indiana Hunter Jumper Association calendars for year-end points in 2008.
